The upward bound of stocks after Taft's message to congress shows which way the wind is blowing.

"Masterly inactivity" on the part of the republicans is the "sell" of platform pledges made at Chicago.

Cook is surely out after the dollars. Having lost his reputation he would console himself with the chink of gold and silver.

With the court house, high school and Federal building going up this year there will be something doing in the building line in Roswell.

Every year we are assured by the saloon people that prohibition has reached the high water mark, but still the good work goes merrily on.

There is some encouragement in the government in securing soundings for the proposed federal building. Large bodies move slowly and not more so than the federal government.

An indication of the continual growth of Roswell is found in the fact that the salary of the postmaster has been increased from $2,600 to $2,700.

Press reports say the Democrats in congress tried to get the statehood bill before the senate but were defeated by the Republicans. Of course, that is what has been happening for years.

Even in Pennsylvania the insurgents made great gains in their fight against the regular Republicans. In Tuesday's primaries Dalgell, Cannon's right hand in the House, came very near defeat. His opponent claims to have been nominated by 1,000 major-and alleges he was swindled out of the fruits of his victory by counting ballots cast for him for Dalgell. That is an old Pennsylvania trick.

Now comes from the Panama Canal that the work of months has been undone by landslides and that the situation is constantly growing worse. The Democratic party will yet have to finish that big ditch.

In spite of the Republican cry of retrenchment the present congress will exceed the previous high-water mark in the way of appropriations, the total going considerably in excess of one billion dollars.

The New Mexican says congress is playing with the Territory. It should have said the Republicans in congress are playing us for a bunch of easyies, and getting away with the goods, too.

Because a dog howled all night and a pumpkin vine withered, a bunch of Arizona Indians were convinced an Indian girl was a witch. Those Indians were even more credulous than some Roswell people.

There has seldom been a time in the history of Roswell when street sprinkling was more needed than at present and the sooner the ordinance before the council is placed into effect, the better it will be for our people.

Four or five railroad presidents can call on President Taft and secure a special message to congress, but a million of the American voters could not even get a hearing. When a man wants to see a thing a certain way he is easily convinced.

If the action now begun in the courts of New Mexico against the present management of the New Mexico Central railroad result in the extension of that road to Roswell, it will result in one of the biggest boosts Roswell has ever had. Here's hoping.

Twelve years ago this country spent $33,000,000 for its navy. Now congress has just passed a bill appropriating $133,000,000 for the navy. When compared with the amounts spent for public buildings, and for extensions of the free delivery system of the mail service it is shown that it exceeds the amount spent for either of them during the entire decade just past.

The vote of 40 to 24 taken on a motion to take up the statehood bill, and which was killed, shows that statehood is dead for this year at least. It also shows that the Republican legislators do not intend to keep their platform pledge on statehood, the vote being practically a part vote. Yet we will hear the same old cry this fall of "Andrews and Statehood." And some suckers will bite.

Over in Arkansas a member of the legislature would stop the playing of bridge whist in order that "the husbands may become acquainted with their wives, and that children may know their mothers when they see them." Such a bill may be needed in Arkansas, but it really seems to us that if bridge playing has taken such a deep hold on the women as the legislator above referred to would have us believe not a law but a stuffed club is needed.

That the insurgent feeling in the Republican party has taken a strong hold on the people of the western states is made manifest by reading the election returns of Tuesday. A Western Republican, who really has at heart the interest of the West and of the whole country, has but two choices before him. He must either become a Democrat or an insurgent Republican and preferably the former.

The Record heartily approves of the action of the Mayor and city council in running over the three members who constitute the so-called minority. It would be useless to have such a body if three men could dictate to and block the wishes of the majority, especially when said majority is undoubtedly carrying out the wishes of a vast majority of the people of Roswell. Boshwhacking may be all right in some places but not in the city council.

WORSE THAN ANANIAS.

The New Mexican cannot refrain from embracing every opportunity to take a slap at the administration of Governor Hagerman, the man who did more to expose the doings of the Plunderbund than any republican official of the territory (since that organization began robbery of the taxpayers of New Mexico. It was Governor Hagerman who brought to light the fact that the territory paid $2,661 for the printing of 500 copies of the governor's message in Spanish and since that time the New Mexican has no love for Herbert J. Hagerman. Only last Tuesday evening the New Mexican said: "For some years past the St. Louis Globe-Democrat has been unfair to New Mexico. Ever since the lamentable Hagerman administration behind which stood Ethan Allen Hitchcock, then secretary of the interior, and supposed to be one of the owners of the Globe-Democrat, that paper has been 'knocking' the territories." The New Mexican might have added that the St. Louis Globe-Democrat commenced this practice many years before Herbert J. Hagerman was thought of as governor of New Mexico and that it has continued it, without intermission, ever since. It is no worse now than it was twenty years ago and was no worse during the Hagerman administration than it was at the time the constitution was drafted by a vote of the people of the territory twenty years ago and the Globe-Democrat is no worse than hundreds of other leading republican newspapers all over the country. The opposition to the admission of the territory in the public press of the United States comes almost entirely from republican newspapers as the opposition in congress is almost entirely from republican senators and representatives. The attempt of the New Mexican to make it appear that the administration of Governor Hagerman had anything to do with the policy of the Globe-Democrat toward New Mexico might charitably be attributed to ignorance were it not so well known that its hatred of the ex-governor is of the malignant type. Short Sultana Crop.

Constantinople, June 9.—This year's crop of Sultana raisins in the Smyrna district of Asiatic Turkey is estimated at 50,000 tons about 5,000 tons less than last year.

The heavy stock of old fruits, especially in England and the general depressed condition of the trade have caused low prices, with a continued downward tendency. The local consumption of this product is insignificant. Unless measures are taken for improving the Sultana trade all around the situation promises to become critical.

Congressional Convention.

Frederick, Md., June 9.—At the Republican Congressional convention for the Sixth Maryland district convened here today, indications point to the nomination of Alexander R. Hagler, of Hagerstown to make the race. Hagler is now county attorney of Washington county. In 1896 he lost the Republican Congressional nomination by one vote.

Hardwood Lumbermen.

Hutchinson, Minn., June 9.—Seventh Day Adventists to the number of several hundreds encamped here today for a period of preaching and experiencing the "old time religion." The convention is the annual conference of the denomination in this state where the Adventists have a large membership and scores of flourishing churches.
